

The insertion of the filter into the catheter is an easy procedure:

Take the filter holder and remove the protection cap.

Place the tip of the filter holder onto the hub of the introduction sheath

Screw the filter holder with a quarter-turn. Push the filter into the introduction sheath

Withdraw the empty filter holder by unscrewing with a quarter-turn to the left. Push down the filter using the pushing catheter.